I. Purpose
This policy defines the Faculty/Student Honor Code adopted by the School.

II. Accountability
Students and faculty are responsible for adhering to this policy. Program directors and the Dean monitor adherence. While students are subject to all other applicable University and School policies with equal force and effect, the Faculty/Student Honor Code is of such fundamental importance that students are required to review the Code and acknowledge their agreement to abide by it prior to enrollment.

III. Policy
FACULTY/STUDENT HONOR CODE

WHEREAS: The faculty of the School of Health Related Professions believe health care professionals must observe high standards of honesty and integrity; and

WHEREAS: As future health care professionals holding a public trust and as members of the SHRP academic community, students must also observe high standards of honesty and integrity in all aspects of education, practice and research; and

WHEREAS: Observance of this Code is essential due to the sensitivity and confidentiality required in professional education and practice and because it is required to uphold and promote the public trust, the integrity of the professions represented at SHRP and the principles of learning and acquisition of knowledge; and

WHEREAS: The faculty and students must make diligent efforts to ensure these high standards are upheld by their colleagues and peers as well as themselves; and

WHEREAS: It follows that faculty and students accept responsibility to help ensure that these standards are maintained in SHRP by reporting incidents of academic and professional dishonesty in others;

THEREFORE: The faculty and students agree to abide by this Honor Code of the School of Health Related Professions as follows:

GENERAL PRINCIPLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The principles of truthfulness, fairness, respect for others, trust, and responsibility and a personal commitment to maintaining these high standards and values constitute the fundamental ideal we all must strive to attain. Accordingly, SHRP faculty and students have the following responsibilities:

- To be truthful in all academic and professional matters, and to always honestly represent their work and that of others;

- To be aware of and to abide by all applicable federal, state and local civil and criminal laws and regulations;

- To be aware of and abide by all applicable codes and standards of ethical and professional conduct and responsibilities, including those established by the profession in which the student's course of study is intended to prepare him or her to practice;

- To be aware of and to abide by all applicable University and School policies, rules, procedures and standards, both general and academic; and the responsibility for personal and professional integrity and honesty in all academic activities;

- To help ensure that high standards of professional and ethical conduct are upheld by faculty, students, colleagues and peers by reporting violations of this Honor Code observed in others to the appropriate School official.

Violations of this Honor Code include conduct that does not fully comport with the statements and principles above. Examples of violations include, but are not limited to, conduct listed below.
